

Magic Bean Patterns

Can you continue the patterns below?

Row 1: A sequence of 10 beans. The first six are colored: red, green, red, green, red, green. The last four are white outlines. The pattern is alternating colors (red, green) for the first six, followed by four white outlines.

Row 2: A sequence of 10 beans. The first six are colored: pink, green, orange, pink, green, orange. The last four are white outlines. The pattern is alternating colors (pink, green, orange) for the first six, followed by four white outlines.

Row 3: A sequence of 10 beans. The first six are colored: green, green, orange, green, green, orange. The last four are white outlines. The pattern is two greens, one orange, two greens, one orange for the first six, followed by four white outlines.

Row 4: A sequence of 10 beans. The first six are colored: orange, pink, pink, orange, pink, pink. The last four are white outlines. The pattern is one orange, two pinks, one orange, two pinks for the first six, followed by four white outlines.

Row 5: A sequence of 10 white outline beans. The pattern is one tilted, one vertical, one tilted, one vertical, one tilted, one vertical, one tilted, one vertical, one tilted, one vertical.